Responsible Students, Responsible Citizens

P11 Literary contest about a problem solved at school.

Students make up a story about a problem generated among students at school and how this problem was solved by the students.

They can use different formats and presentations. It can be a story with pictures, a comic...

Each country will organize a contest in their schools to choose one per country.

Each country will present the winning story in the mobility in Spain.

The different partners will vote for the best story.

Each country will vote for, in their opinion, the best story of the rest of the countries.
